

Basic qualification for support in everyday life according to AnFöVO

TARGET GROUP: Alle Interessierten,
Voraussetzung: Deutsch in Wort und Schrift

Please register online via our homepage:
<https://bildung.bzpg.de>

COSTS: 180,00 €

Funding via Job Centre and Employment Agency is possible

VENUE:

Training Centre for Nursing and Health (BZPG) in Würselen
Presence: Friday 9:00 - 14:00, Online: 17:00 - 19:15

NUMBER OF LESSONS: 40

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: 15.06.2024

This qualification consists of 2 modules. In the first module, basic knowledge is taught, which is needed if only domestic tasks are to be taken on. In the second module, topics on dementia and communication are dealt with more intensively. After successful completion of both modules, the graduates can take over all tasks of support in everyday life in the sense of the AnFöVO.

The course takes place on the online seminar days from 5:00 pm to 7:15 pm.
The face-to-face seminars take place on Fridays from 09:00-14:00 at the BZPG.

CONTENTS

- Basic knowledge of dementia
- Conflicts and possibilities of conflict resolution
- Domestic support
- Basic knowledge of illness and disabilities
- Communication and conversation
- Perception of the social environment and the existing need for assistance
- Basic knowledge of content, services and care law
- Expansion of communication, action and reflection skills, Basic knowledge of content, services and care law
- Expansion of communication, action and reflection skills
- Biographical interests and existential experiences of older people
- Expanded basic knowledge of requirements and objectives of support services in the sense of the AnFöVO
- Basic knowledge of emergencies, emergency knowledge and first aid measures
- Final reflection and awarding of certificate

GOALS

The participants receive basic knowledge and practical basic skills to support people in need of care and assistance in everyday life.

